

CONSENT FOR USE OF PHOTOGRAPHS

Photovoice is a method where people use photography and written words to capture and share their experiences, thoughts, or perspectives on a particular topic or issue. Photovoice has been used around the world for over 30 years as a powerful and interesting way to raise awareness, spark conversations and bring about change.

“From Images to Action” is a Photovoice activity that Niagara College will be running during the lead up to Disability Awareness Week to provide a platform for students living with visible and non-visible disabilities to share their perspectives on topics such as personal strengths, accessibility, and ableism. Their work will be displayed during exhibition sessions that will take place on both campuses during Disability Awareness Week from March 9th to the 13th. Activity photos will be stored on a secure college drive and only the activity team will have access to them. Photos taken during this project will be utilized only for the purposes outlined below that you consent to.
